March 12, 2015, Mumbai: Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited of Japan has completed acquisition of 2.77 per cent strategic stake in Reliance Capital, a part of Anil Ambani led Reliance Group.

The entire proceeds of Rs 371 crore (US$ 58.4 million) for the 2.77 per cent stake has been duly received from Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited.

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited had agreed to acquire strategic stake in Reliance Capital, subject to regulatory and shareholders approvals, which have since been received.

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank has acquired an initial 2.77 percent strategic stake in Reliance Capital amounting to Rs 371 crore (US$ 58.4 million) through preferential allotment, with a lock-in period of one year. The investment has been made at Rs 530 per share representing a premium of over 11 percent to the stock price of relevant date of Reliance Capital.

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Group is the fourth largest bank in Japan (in terms of market capitalization and corporate loans) and Japan's largest financial institution managing assets of US$ 682 billion with assets under custody of US$ 1.8 trillion as of September 30, 2014.

"We welcome Sumitomo Mitsui Trust as our strategic partner in Reliance Capital. We are confident of accelerating our growth and tap new opportunities with the help of SMTB's long standing experience and support" said Mr. Sam Ghosh, CEO, Reliance Capital.

As part of the agreement, Reliance Capital intends to establish a new Bank in India, with support of Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank as strategic partner, as and when RBI's policies permit formation of the same.

Both companies will also collaborate in providing solutions for their clients, including inter alia in the area of M&A opportunities in India and Japan, and will assist each other in distribution of their respective financial products through their networks.

Reliance Capital will also support clients of Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank in their supply chain financing and advisory needs in India.

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank will support Reliance Group across its various group companies by providing wide range of financial and other services in Japan and Asia Pacific region.
