January 23, 2015, Mumbai: The Shareholders of Reliance Capital Ltd, a part of Mr. Anil Ambani led Reliance Group, approved the preferential allotment to Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank, Limited of Japan. The allotment by Reliance Capital is part of the long term strategic alliance announced by two companies earlier last month.

The allotment resolution was passed by an overwhelming majority of 99.99 percent shareholders that voted on the resolution. The results of the voting were announced at an Extra Ordinary General Meeting held here today.

As part of the agreement, Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Bank will be taking an initial 2.77 percent strategic stake in Reliance Capital amounting to Rs 371 crore (US$ 58.4 million) through preferential allotment, with a lock-in period of one year. The investment is being made at Rs 530 per share representing a premium of over 11 percent to the stock price of relevant date of Reliance Capital.

Sumitomo Mitsui Trust Group is the fourth largest bank in Japan (in terms of market capitalization and corporate loans) and Japan's largest financial institution managing assets of US$ 682 billion with assets under custody of US$ 1.8 trillion as of September 2014.

"We would like to thank our shareholders for whole-heartedly supporting this partnership that will help the company tap new growth opportunities and expand our existing business", said Mr. Sam Ghosh, CEO, Reliance Capital.
